

Château de Servolex

AN EXCEPTIONAL VENUE

The Château de Servolex offers memories of the Past, refinement and pleasure. Situated at the top of the Servolex hamlet, near Chambéry, this XVIIth Century abode has a History illustrated by the different people who resided here. Among them are the Count Xavier de Vignet and his wife the Countess Césarine, sister of the great Poet, Alphonse de Lamartine.

The famous Poet stayed regularly at Servolex.
The Château served as a great inspiration for his work...

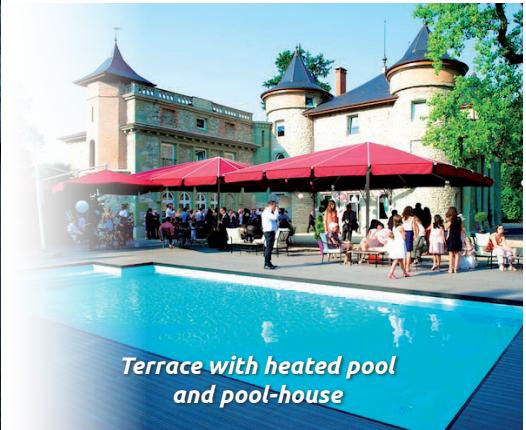

“Le salon était en plein champ. Tantôt un bois de jeunes sapins sur les dernières croupes vertes du mont du Chat d'où l'on domine la vallée vraiment arcadienne de Chambéry et son lac à gauche. Tantôt une allée de hautes charmilles au fond du jardin de Servolex, allée élevée en terrasses sur un vallon noyé de feuillages et de hautes vignes entrelacées aux noyers”.

*D*iscover the magical illuminated gardens. The Summer offers the flowered rose beds, admire the century-old trees and enjoy the heated pool and the terrace.

The exquisite charm of the Grand Salon, which opens onto the Lamartine reception salon in authentic surroundings with wooden panneling, stained glass, chandeliers, paintings and its magnificent Renaissance fire place.

*Terrace with heated pool
and pool-house*

The Lamartine reception area, one of the most beautiful

The Salon bleu, the former snooker room

At the top of the majestic staircase, the Château maintains its magic... Spacious and cosy, all the bedroom suites are refined and unique. Decorated in the utmost taste, your nights prolong the enchantment in absolute comfort.

The Countess Césarine de Lamartine suite, with its magnificent 1856 open fire place

The Count Marin suite, the ancient pigeon loft

The Pantaleón suite, furnished in Baroque-style
